

Guidelines for Documentation of Physical Disabilities

Students requesting accommodations for a medical condition should submit a letter from their doctor. The letter should:

- be on letterhead
- be dated and signed
- contain a specific medical diagnosis
- give evidence of impairment that substantiates a need for accommodation. Such evidence should be relevant to the setting in which the accommodation is requested.